

What to expect from your visit to:

SANTA'S GROTTO

at Dublin Zoo

ABOUT SANTA'S GROTTO

Santa's Grotto is located in the farmhouse at Dublin Zoo's Family Farm.

When visiting Santa's Grotto at Dublin Zoo, visitors will have the exciting opportunity to meet Santa and his friendly Elves, receive a special gift and take a photo to bring home! As well as meeting Santa, visitors can explore the amazing habitats at Dublin Zoo and visit all of their favourite animals.

BEFORE YOUR VISIT

Before your visit to Dublin Zoo and Santa's Grotto, we recommend that you visit our website where you can find out more about things such as facilities and tickets.

www.dublinozoo.ie

VISITING SANTA'S GROTTO

When you arrive at Santa's Grotto, you will be greeted by Santa's friendly Elves. The Elves will take your booking details, and lead you to Santa's waiting room.

VISITING SANTA'S GROTTTO

Santa's Grotto is lit with soft, red ambient lighting. There will also be gentle, festive music playing throughout the Grotto, at a low volume.

If the lights or noise bother you, please let one of Santa's Elves know.

VISITING SANTA'S GROTTO

When in the waiting room, Santa's Elves may talk to you and play games. They might also ask to colour with you. If you would rather a quiet moment to yourself, there are books available for you to read.

VISITING SANTA'S GROTTO

When it is time, the Elves will lead you in to meet Santa – he is very excited to meet you! While here, Santa might talk to you, and will give you a gift.

VISITING SANTA'S GROTTO

After you receive your gift, our photographers can take some pictures of you with Santa. These pictures can be collected when you exit Dublin Zoo.

LEAVING SANTA'S GROTTTO

When it is time to leave Santa's Grotto, the Elves will lead you to the exit. Once you exit the Grotto, if there's still time, you are welcome to explore Dublin Zoo. Remember that Dublin Zoo closes at 4pm.

Visiting Santa's Grotto is a great way to celebrate the holiday season!

Santa, his Elves, and everyone at Dublin Zoo look forward to seeing you there!

